By clicking the agreement indicator button, you are affirmatively consenting, initially and on an ongoing basis, to receive Communications related to your membership and Account(s) with us in electronic form, and that we may discontinue sending paper Communications to you, until such time as you withdraw your consent as described below.

Your continued use of our online services after we send you notice of the change is reaffirmation of your consent. We reserve the right to discontinue support of any Internet browser or other software at any time and without advance notice if, in our opinion, it suffers from a security flaw or other flaw that makes it unsuitable for use with our Communications and/or online services.

If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, ten (10) days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

If you order us to stop one of these payments three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

Right to Receive Documentation of Transactions

You will get a monthly account statement unless there are no transfers in a particular month, in which case you will get a statement at least quarterly.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers

In the event that you believe there has been an error with respect to any original check or image thereof transmitted to the Credit Union for deposit or a breach of this Agreement and Disclosure, you will immediately contact the Credit Union regarding such error or breach as set forth below.

- By calling the Credit Union at: 800-231-1626;
- By emailing the Credit Union at: onlinehelp@firefirstcu.org; or
- By writing a letter and sending it to P.O. Box 60890, Los Angeles, CA 90060-0890.

Contact us as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- Tell us your name and Account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days. We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10)* business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your Account within ten (10)* business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not credit your Account. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within three (3) business days after we finish our investigation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

* If you assert an error within 30 days after you make the first deposit to your Account, we will have 20 business days instead of ten (10) business days.

 If you give notice of an error within 30 days after you make the first deposit to your Account, or notice of an error involving a transaction initiated outside the United States, its possessions and territories, we will have 90 days instead of 45 days to investigate. There may be other exceptions and we may establish other exceptions in addition to those not specifically mentioned above.

Provided that no exceptions are applicable, if we cause an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your account, or cause funds from your account to be directed to a person or entity which does not comply with your transfer or payment instructions, we will be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your account and for directing to the proper recipient any previously misdirected bill payments or transfers.

UNLESS OTHERWISE REQUIRED BY LAW, THE CREDIT UNION SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, GOODWILL, USE, DATA, OR OTHER LOSS OR DAMAGE CAUSED BY YOUR USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICE. You can contact the Credit Union during regular business hours by calling (800) 231-1626, by sending an e-mail to onlinehelp@firefirstcu.org, or by writing a letter and sending it to Firefighters First

Credit Union, P.O. Box 60890, Los Angeles, CA 90060-0890.

If you believe your Password has been lost or stolen, and you tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone has used your Password without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Password, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your Password without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods. Additional Disclosures Applicable to Bill Payment Service

Description of Service

The Bill Payment Service permits you to use your Internet-enabled device (computer, tablet or mobile device) to direct payments from your designated online Bill Payment Account to third parties you wish to pay (businesses or individuals). Your designated Bill Payment Account must be a checking account.

By submitting a payment request through the Bill Payment Service, you authorize us and our service providers to remove funds from your designated Bill Payment Account in the amount and at the frequency you request, on the dates indicated on screen messages within the Bill Payment Service when you setup the Bill Payment. In order to successfully make payments through the Bill Payment Service, you must provide accurate and complete information to us that allows us to identify the payee, and for the payee to be able to identify you as the sender of the payment. You also acknowledge that, from time to time, certain payees may update or change their information, such as the address where Bill Payments should be sent. While we will attempt to update or change such information as provided to us by the payee, you agree that we have no obligation to do so and it is your sole responsibility to change or update payee information you receive from the payee.

All payments you make will be deducted from the checking account that you designate as your Bill Payment Account for the Bill Payment Service. Any payments you wish to make through this Service must be payable in U.S. dollars to a payee located in the United States. We reserve the right to restrict types of payees or specific payees to whom payments may be made using the Service from time to time.

You should not use the Bill Payment Service to make payments to settle securities purchases, payments to interest bearing accounts, tax payments, payments to government agencies, court ordered payments, gambling debts or any payments otherwise prohibited by law. Payments for these payees are prohibited, but if such a payment is processed through the Bill Payment Service, the payment will be your sole responsibility, including if the payment is delayed or improperly processed or credited.

Scheduling Payments

Funds must be available in your Bill Payment Account on the scheduled payment date. If the date you schedule a payment to be initiated falls on a non-Business Day (Saturday, Sunday, or holiday), funds must be available in your Bill Payment Account the following Business Day (e.g. Monday). After funds are withdrawn from your Bill Payment Account to make a payment, we may make the payment either by transferring funds electronically (using the Federal Reserve Banks' ACH system) to the payee or by mailing the payee a check.

Payments scheduled via bill pay will be delivered in two (2) to five (5) Business Days, depending on the method. For payees that accept electronic payments, they will receive the payment within two (2) Business Days after the scheduled send on date. If the payee does not accept electronic payments, a check will be issued and mailed to the address you provide. This is a default method used to ensure that the delivery of the payment is made, even if we're (bill pay provider) is unable to validate the payee, address or account number. The funds are debited from the linked account one (1) to two (2) Business Days after the send on date.

While we will make commercially reasonable efforts to deliver your payments made through the Bill Payment Service by the designated delivery date, you acknowledge that circumstances beyond our control may cause delays in the delivery, handling, or posting of payment. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO PREVENT ANY DELAY IN THE DELIVERY OF PAYMENTS, AND YOU CAN PREVENT SUCH DELAYS BY SCHEDULING DELIVERY OF YOUR PAYMENT IN ADVANCE OF YOUR PAYEE'S ACTUAL DUE DATE. WE ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DELAYS CAUSED BY THE POSTAL SERVICE, YOUR PAYEE, OR ANY OTHER PARTY BEYOND OUR REASONABLE CONTROL.

Your Responsibility to Monitor Payments

The Credit Union is only responsible for exercising ordinary care in processing and sending payments upon your authorization in accordance with this Agreement and Disclosure. The Credit Union will not be liable in any way for damages you incur for any of the following reasons:

- you do not have available funds in your Bill Payment Account to make the payment on the processing date;
- delays in mail delivery;
- changes to the payee's address or account number unless we've been advised of the change by you in advance;

- the failure of any payee to correctly account for or credit the payment in a timely manner; or
- any other circumstances beyond the control of the Credit Union.

The session during which you schedule a payment, the Credit Union will consider the request to be received on that Business Day. Otherwise, it will be considered received on the following Business Day. For all entries made using the Bill Payment Services, the time recorded by the Online Banking Service or Mobile Banking Service will be considered the official time of the transaction, even if such time differs from the time on your computer or other device you use to initiate the payment.

If your Bill Payment Account does not have available funds to make a payment as of the date the payment is debited to your account, the Bill Payment Service will automatically block future Bill Payment requests until the account has available funds to make the payment. The Credit Union will attempt to notify you by e-mail or U.S. Postal Mail, but the Credit Union shall have no obligation or liability if it does not complete a payment because there were not available funds in your account to process the payment. In all cases, you are responsible for either contacting the Credit Union at (800) 231-1626 to either make alternate arrangements for the payment or reschedule the payment through the Service. In the case of fixed payments, only the payment currently scheduled will be impacted. Fixed payments scheduled for future dates will not be affected.

Cancel or Change Payment Instructions

Payments must be changed or canceled using the Bill Payment Service prior to 6:30 p.m. PT on the Business Day the transaction is scheduled to be initiated. If you ask us to cancel a payment after it is issued and we agree to do so, we may charge you a stop payment fee, NOTE this only applies to bill payments issued and mailed by check and not for ACH bill payments. Stop payment orders whether oral, written, or electronic, will be in effect for a period of six (6) months. If requested by the Credit Union, you will confirm any stop payment order in writing. After six (6) months, any stop payment will terminate and must be renewed in order to continue in effect. The Credit Union may pay any item that is presented following the lapse of any stop payment order.

Multiple Person Bill Payment Accounts

If more than one person has access to a Bill Payment account, each person may individually enroll in the Bill Pay Service. Each enrolled person needs a unique Username and Password but may choose to use the same payee list. Each individual may terminate her/his enrollment in the Bill Payment Service without affecting the Service for any other person enrolled in that Bill Payment account. However, any enrolled person may terminate the Bill Payment Service which will terminate the service for all enrolled persons on that Bill Payment account.

Service Limitations

The following are limitations to the use of the Credit Union's Bill Payment Service:

- The maximum amount for each bill payment is $9,999.99.
- The maximum daily limit is $19,999.99.

Additional Disclosures Applicable to Remote Deposit Capture Services

Use of the Services

You authorize the Credit Union to remotely deposit paper checks to your account(s) with us (the "Account") by electronically transmitting a digital image of the paper checks to us for deposit. Your use of the Services constitutes your acceptance of the terms and conditions of this Remote Deposit Capture Service ("RDCS" or "service") Agreement and Disclosure. You agree to comply with the hardware and software requirements set forth by our RDCS provider, Digital Insight. Upon receipt of the digital image, the Credit Union will review the image for acceptability. You understand and agree that receipt of an image does not occur until after the Credit Union notifies you of receipt of the image via the Deposit History feature. You understand that, in the event you receive a notification from us confirming receipt of an image, such notification does not mean that the image contains no errors or that the Credit Union is responsible for any information you transmit to us. The Credit Union is not responsible for any image that we do not receive. You understand and agree that even if we do not initially reject an item you deposit through the RDCS, we may return the deposit because, among other reasons, the paying bank may deem the electronic image illegible. Following receipt of the image, the Credit Union may process the image by preparing a "substitute check" or clearing the item as an image. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, we reserve the right, within our sole and absolute discretion, to accept or reject any item for remote deposit into your Account. You understand that any amount credited to your Account for items deposited using the RDCS is a provisional credit and you agree to indemnify the Credit Union against any loss we suffer because of our acceptance of the remotely deposited check.

In addition, you agree that you will not (i) modify, change, alter, translate, create derivative works from, reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile the technology or RDCS, (ii) copy or reproduce all or any part of the technology or RDCS; or (iii) interfere, or attempt to interfere, with the technology or RDCS.

Compliance with Law

You agree to use the products and Service for lawful purposes and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including any clearinghouse rules or agreements, operating circulars, image exchange agreements, and any other documents to which we are a party of that govern the RDCS. You warrant that you will only transmit acceptable items for deposit and have handled the original items in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. You promise to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees) or other harm arising out of any violation of this section. This indemnity will survive termination of your Account and this RDCS Agreement and Disclosure.

Check Requirements

You agree only to capture images of "checks", as that term is defined in the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation CC – Availability of Funds and Collection of Checks, and that the image transmitted to us shall be deemed an "item" within the meaning of Articles 3 and 4 of the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in California. Any image of a check that you transmit to us must accurately and legibly provide all the information on the front and back of the check at the time presented to you by the drawer. Rejection of Deposit

The Credit Union is not liable for any service or late charges levied against you due to their rejection of any item. In all cases, you are responsible for any loss or overdraft plus any applicable fees to your Account due to an item being returned. The Credit Union will send you an email notification of any item(s) that are rejected, no later than the next Business Day following rejection.

Items Returned Unpaid

A written or email notice will be sent to you for any transactions we are unable to process or any item that is returned by the paying bank (dishonored). With respect to any item that you transmit to us for remote deposit that we credit to your Account, in the event such item is dishonored, you authorize us to debit the amount of such item and any associated fees from the Account.

Email Address

You acknowledge that you are required to maintain a current email address where we will send you notifications and communications under this Agreement and Disclosure. You agree to notify the Credit Union immediately if you change your email address so that all of your records at the Credit Union can be updated accordingly. Your primary email address on file will be the default email utilized for follow up emails from the Credit Union concerning this service.

Unavailability of RDCS

You understand and agree that the RDCS may, at times, be temporarily unavailable due to Credit Union system maintenance or technical difficulties including those of the Internet service provider, cellular service provider and Internet software. Box 60890, Los Angeles, CA 900600890. It is your sole responsibility to verify that items deposited using the RDCS have been received and accepted for deposit by the Credit Union.

Accountholder's Warranties

You make the following warranties and representations with respect to each image of an original check you transmit to the Credit Union utilizing the RDCS:

1. Each image of a check transmitted to the Credit Union is a true and accurate rendition of the front and back of the original check as of the time it is deposited through the RDCS, without any alteration, and the drawer of the check has no defense against payment of the check.
2. The amount, the payee, signature(s), and endorsement(s) on the original check are legible, genuine, and accurate.

You will not deposit or otherwise endorse to a third party the original item (the original check) or image or copy thereof after deposited using this Service and no person will receive a transfer, presentment, or return of, or otherwise be charged for, the item (whether the original item, an electronic check, electronic returned check, substitute check, or a paper or electronic representation of the original item) such that the person will be asked to make payment based on an item it has already paid. Also see Storage of Original Checks below.
4. Other than the digital image of an original check that you remotely deposit through the RDCS, there are no other duplicate images of the original check.
5. You have instituted procedures to ensure that each original check was authorized by the drawer in the amount stated on the original check and to the payee stated on the original check.
6. You are authorized to enforce each item transmitted or are authorized to obtain payment of each item on behalf of a person entitled to enforce such transmitted item.
7. The information you provided in your Application remains true and correct and, in the event any such information changes, you will immediately notify the Credit Union of the change.
8. You have not knowingly failed to communicate any material information to the Credit Union.
9. You have possession of each original check deposited using the RDCS and no party will submit the original check for payment.

12. You will not use the RDCS and/or your accounts for any illegal activity or transactions.

Storage of Original Checks

You must securely store each original check for at least a period of 90 days, and will provide the original check to the Credit Union upon their request. Upon expiration of such 90-day period, you will destroy the original check. If you fail to provide the Credit Union a copy of the original check upon their request, you will be liable for any claims by third parties or the Credit Union concerning the requested check. You understand and agree that you are responsible for any loss caused by your failure to secure the original checks.

Accountholder's Indemnification Obligation

You understand and agree that you are required to indemnify the Credit Union and hold the Credit Union harmless against any and all claims, actions, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses arising from your use of the RDCS and/or breach of this RDCS Agreement and Disclosure. The Credit Union will provide you a prompt notice of any such claims and give you reasonable assistance (at your expense) for the defense of any such claims, provided that they may participate in such defense and settlement with counsel of their own choice. However, you will have no authority to settle any claim against the Credit Union without their prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. You understand and agree that this paragraph shall survive the termination of this RDCS Agreement and Disclosure.

Periodic Statements

Any remote deposits made through the RDCS will be reflected on your monthly account statement. You understand and agree that you are required to notify the Credit Union of any suspected error relating to images transmitted using the RDCS by no later than 60 days after you receive the monthly periodic statement that includes any transaction you allege is erroneous. You are responsible for any errors that you fail to bring to our attention within such time period.

Limitations on Frequency and Dollar Amount

You understand and agree that you cannot exceed the limitations on frequency and dollar amounts of remote deposits that are greater than $75,000.00. If you attempt to make a deposit in excess of these limits, the Credit Union can reject such deposit. If the Credit Union permits you to make a deposit in excess of these limits, such deposit will still be subject to this RDCS Agreement and Disclosure, and the Credit Union will not be obligated to allow such a deposit at other times.

Waiver

The failure of either party to seek a redress for violation, or to insist upon the strict performance, of any covenant, agreement, provision, or condition hereof shall not constitute the waiver of the terms or of the terms of any other covenant, agreement, provision, or condition, and each party shall have all remedies provided herein with respect to any subsequent act which would have originally constituted the violation hereunder.
